

GUIDELINE TO APPLY FOR THE VISA AT THE MEXICAN EMBASSY (FOR EMPLOYEES)

1) OBTAIN AN AUTHORIZATION TO APPLY FOR THE MEXICAN VISA TO ENTER MEXICO THROUGH A WORK PERMIT VISA (TEMPORARY RESIDENT VISA WITH NUT NUMBER) ISSUED BY A MEXICAN EMBASSY.

Residency in Mexico with a Work Permit authorization is a two-step process to be started by the applicants at any Mexican Consulate or Embassy abroad and to be completed in Mexico before the immigration authorities.

- A. Company must apply for a Work permit visa before the National Institute of Immigration (INM) in Mexico, upon the approval, you will receive an email from the Company with the official Authorization Letter issued by the INM with its corresponding authorization number (NUT), which will be valid only for a non-renewable 30 working days after the issuance date.
- B. Once the official Authorization Letter is received, you must book an appointment to participate in a personal consular interview at the nearest Mexican Embassy in your corresponding state (country of birth or legal residence) to obtain a single-entry visa to Mexico. Book the appointment through Mexitel at the official website of the corresponding Mexican Embassy.
- C. Make sure to apply for a “Temporary Resident Visa for Work with NUT. Avoid asking for any other type of visa since it will be denied due to inconsistency with the Visa authorized by the INM.
